

PURELL® Sanitizing Hand Wipes

An easy, safe and affordable way for patients or residents to clean and sanitize their hands.

- Healthcare-associated infections are now the eighth leading cause of death in the U.S., affecting more than two million patients annually and resulting in 90,000 deaths per year.²
- An estimated 1.5 million facility-related infections (or one infection per resident) occur in long-term care facilities every year.³
- Hand hygiene compliance efforts are more focused on healthcare workers, with less emphasis on the patient or resident.

Make PURELL Sanitizing Hand Wipes easily accessible for patients or residents, either at bedside or in a centralized setting.

Minimize the spread of germs in a cost-effective way.
