

PURELL® Instant Hand Sanitizer with Biobased Content*

Made with natural, renewable ethanol.

Available in foam & gel.

Environmentally preferred alternative to petroleum based products.

Produced with plant-derived ethanol, a renewable resource.

What is biobased?

The USDA defines biobased as a product composed in whole or significant part of biological products or renewable agricultural materials.

Why biobased?

Biobased products offer an environmentally preferred alternative to products made from petroleum. They are produced in significant part using ingredients sourced from renewable, plant-based sources and represent a commitment to improving a product's environmental impact.

*Certified by third-party ASTM compliant test facility using the ASTM International Isotope Standard Method D 6866, in accordance with 7 CFR 2902.7(c)

PURELL Instant Hand Sanitizer with Biobased Content is part of a complete line of gentle and effective compliance-building hand hygiene products from GOJO. For more information call 800-321-9647 or visit GOJO.com.

Meets the USDA BioPreferred Program biobased content requirement.

What is the USDA BioPreferred Program?

The USDA BioPreferred Program was created to support a mandate in the 2002 Farm Bill stating all federal agencies were to give procurement preference to USDA-designated biobased products.

Does PURELL with Biobased Content meet the USDA BioPreferred Program?

Yes. PURELL with Biobased Content is produced in significant part with natural, renewable ingredients at levels that exceed the minimum requirement set for hand sanitizer by the USDA BioPreferred Program. Federal agencies can purchase PURELL with Biobased Content and be confident they are meeting the USDA BioPreferred program requirements for hand sanitizers.

What other GOJO products meet the USDA BioPreferred Program?

The USDA BioPreferred Program also set a minimum biobased requirements for hand cleaners.
